- ii. 21/01077/FUL Coughton C Of E Junior And Infant School

Cllr Lewington outlined the application which was for the erection of a new modular building to include one classroom with toilet and storage facilities and the associated external drainage works.

Nick Moon (Chair of Governors) representing the School gave an explanation of the work to be carried out. He confirmed there would be no increase in the number of pupils or staff and would therefore not impact on the parking in Coughton Lane. Several issues and concerns raised by members of the public were put to him which included the car park situation. He invited any residents of the village to visit the school to see for themselves the work to be carried out. Nick mentioned that the Godfrey Clayton Trust were still considering the car park and that it was not off the agenda.

Cllrs Piddington, Stanton and Lewington had each visited the school and agreed that the proposed building was needed.

No objection was raised.

Proposed Cllr Lewington                      Seconded Cllr Stanton                      All in favour
